October 26-28, 2017

“Come away by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest” (Mark 6:31)

To Pastors and spouses, and ministry leaders . . .

Every pastor knows, the demands of ministry are relentless. Small wonder that Jesus himself urges us to take time to re-charge.

That's why the Black Hills Shepherds Retreat exists—to give pastors and spouses a break that makes a difference. Let me invite you to join us this year.

Now in its ninth year, the Black Hills Shepherds Retreat is made possible by the generosity and hard work of people whose heart-beat is to serve those who serve. Let them serve you October 26-28. A beautiful place, great food, outstanding speakers, rich fellowship—all at a price you can actually afford (and if you can't, we can help).

To register, please complete the registration form and mail with payment to :

Sights and sounds . . .

"I came here with a heavy heart and broken down. Now I am going home renewed and filled. I praise God and thank Him for this wonderful time."

"Quality, engaging, not just fluff."

"I will return to the pastoral ministry with a refreshed, renewed, and revived spirit. Mission accomplished!"

"Inspiring, relevant, and informative"

Shepherds Retreat Highlights
